

Communicate with Impact

Take your presentation skills to the next level

Communicate with Impact is a unique two-day program, taking place November 6-7, 2019 in Halifax. It is designed for leaders and professionals who want to improve their presentations skills and deliver compelling messages with confidence.

Through a combination of reflections, active learning, discussions and feedback, participants will gain an understanding of the methods and practices needed to become effective and impactful communicators.

Participants will learn to

- Recognize and avoid common communication barriers
- Practice clear and concise communication
- Apply a communication model to daily situations
- Address and leverage personal anxiety
- Organize, structure, and contextualize key messages

Who will benefit

- Mid to senior level business leaders
- Professionals who present in front of stakeholder audiences
- Individuals who experience anxiety and uncertainty when presenting

Program Fees

Early Bird Rate - $1,495/participant (until October 1, 2019)

Regular Rate - $1,694/participant

Register or request more information at:

kbrs.ca/communicate-impact

or contact:

Angela Mitton

902.421.1723

amitton@kbrs.ca

What participants are saying:

“Speaking can be intimidating and I didn’t feel that at all. It was a welcoming and open environment.”

“Your workshop demonstrated to me how I can combat my doubts.”

Catherine J. Woodman

Associate & Communicate with Impact Facilitator

Catherine is an experienced leader and skilled orator who recognizes the importance of communicating effectively and with impact. She is passionate about empowering other professionals to elevate their communication skills within a safe and supportive environment.